FINDS CROPS GOOD WEST OF MOUNTAINS

Chicago, Oct. 13.—West of Nebraska and Kansas the country is to experience good times from crops in and to come is the assertion of Traffic Director Winchell of the Union Pacific system, who returned to Chicago today from a four weeks' inspection trip over the lines to the Pacific coast.

"California will this year, beginning November 1, ship 40,000 carloads of deciduous fruit, as against 10,000 carloads last season and against a maximum season of between 55,000 and 60,000 carloads. This is evidence of the rapidity with which the state has recovered from the effects of last winter and spring. Of course, everybody on the coast is expecting much from the Panama canal, and I think the development of California and the coast generally will be helped by the big ditch. Already arrangements have been made for regular sailing of one of the Italian lines of steamers directly to the coast, stopping at San Diego and San Francisco, through the canal. I have no doubt similar arrangements will be perfected by German and other boat lines. North Italy furnishes a first-class grade of fruit farmers and they will help the coast, as they understand the cultivation of these products.

"General crops in Colorado, Utah and Idaho were very large. The rains apparently did not get east of those states, being broken by the mountains. Colorado's crops are in excess of its mining products in value.

"Work on forty-five miles of second track for the Oregon Short Line north of Ogden has been finished. The Union Pacific is now double-tracked for 76 per cent of the distance between Omaha and Ogden."

MOVING PICTURE OF PINE RIDGE BATTLE

Pine Ridge, S. D., Oct. 13.—General Nelson A. Miles, Colonel (Buffalo Bill) W. F. Cody and a number of other prominent former Indian fighters made their debuts in "real" drama here today when the battle of Wounded Knee, which was fought on December 29, 1890, when thirty-two United States soldiers and 156 Indians were killed, was reproduced before a motion camera. Colonel Cody has arranged to reproduce several of the important battles between the federal troops and the Indians, and today's "battle" was the first of the series.

Two hundred United States soldiers from Fort Robinson, together with several hundred Indians encamped in tepees, which were afterward burned in order to add realism to the drama, participated in the fight, which was staged on the original spot upon which the famous encounter occurred. Colonel Cody, who participated in the engagement, today presided as stage manager and, accompanied by Generals Miles, Maus, Redwin, King and Lee and Colonel Sickles, charged the redskins and forced them to flee as the camera clicked.

CONGRESSMAN JOHNSON FIGHTS FOR ASSAY OFFICE

Washington, Oct. 13.—Congressman Johnson made a determined fight in the house today to retain the appropriation for the assay office at Salt Lake. To discontinue the appropriation would mean the closing of the office at Salt Lake.

"If," said Mr. Johnson, "it is the policy of this administration to strike a blow at the mining industries of the western states, then abolish them by act of congress, enacted in the open, and not by a miserable subterfuge. The assay office at Salt Lake is in the very center of the gold and silver producing region and acts as a clearing house for the surrounding states."

ORLOV'S MUSIC PLAY IS WELL RECEIVED

Washington, Oct. 13.—Practically all the Utah citizens in Washington, including Senator Sutherland, Lehi Smoot and Representative Johnson, and their families, attended the initial performance this evening of "The Red Canary," a new music play composed by Harold Orlov of Salt Lake. In the company from Salt Lake are David Reese, the leading tenor, and Miss Graham. The leading woman is Lina Arabinell, a favorite with Washington theatregoers, who shared with Mr. Reese in the unqualified success which attended Mr. Orlov's play. At the close of a week's production here the play will go to New York City for the remainder of the season.

MORMONS ASK EXPLANATION

Illinois W.C.T.U. President's Attack on Church as Degradation to Womanhood.

Salt Lake, Oct. 14.—Because Miss Helen Wood, president of the W. C. T. U. in Illinois, said in a speech at the state convention of the organization in Galesburg Friday that Mormonism was an agent to degrade womanhood and classed the religion with "white slavery, cocaine, morphine and other institutions of evil," it is probable that a retraction will be demanded of Miss Wood.

Upon reading the Associated Press dispatch on the speech, President E. D. Woodruff of the Commercial club immediately took steps to demand an explanation from Miss Wood.

On approval by the board of governors yesterday, Dr. Woodruff sent the following telegram to Miss Wood: "Miss Helen L. Wood, President Illinois W. C. T. U., Chicago, Ill.—Associated Press dispatch today, quoting from your speech at Galesburg, says you brand Mormonism as an agent to degrade womanhood and class it with white slavery, cocaine, morphine and other institutions of evil. Says you urge W. C. T. U. to direct its influence against it. Statement has created intense indignation among all classes of Utah people. Local W. C. T. U. meets Monday to take action. Please answer at once, saying whether or not you are quoted correctly. (Signed) E. D. WOODRUFF, President Salt Lake City Commercial Club."

Dr. Dr. Woodruff then urged the W. C. T. U. of Utah to correct and demand a retraction of the statements reported to have been made by Miss Wood. He made his request through Mrs. Lulu Shepard, president of the state organization, who is visiting in Glendale, Mont.

Telegram to Mrs. Shepard. The following telegram was sent to Mrs. Shepard, Utah State President, W. C. T. U. (visiting at), Glendale, Mont.—Associated Press dispatch, published over United States today, of speech of Helen L. Wood, president of Illinois W. C. T. U., who branded Mormonism an agent to degrade womanhood and classed it with white slavery, cocaine and other institutions of evil. Urges that W. C. T. U. direct its influence against Mormons now that fight against booze has been successful. Commercial club wishes to join with W. C. T. U. in correction of statements and demand for retraction. Mrs. A. Walker (president Salt Lake W. C. T. U.) calls meeting Tuesday to consider. Please wire your instructions to her. (Signed) E. D. WOODRUFF, President Salt Lake City Commercial Club."

Stands by President. A telegram from The Tribune correspondent in Galesburg, Ill., where the convention is being held, last night announced that the Illinois branch of the society had stood by its president and had adopted the following resolution in reply to the telegram from President Woodruff:

"Whereas, The Mormon church continues to teach polygamy and its leaders permit and even practice, according to their own testimony before the senate committee, polygamy in violation of the laws of God and man; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we acquiesce ourselves with these facts and do all in our power as individuals to rid the community of their books and missionaries; that we heartily approve investigations by the national government of the commercial investments and monopolies of the Mormon hierarchy; and that we deplore the signing of Apostle Reed Smoot in the United States senate.

Miss Wood's Comment. Commenting upon her speech, Miss Wood said last night, in an interview with The Tribune correspondent in Galesburg:

In my address I said that notwithstanding the declaration against plural marriages made by the Mormon hierarchy, it was found that those marriages are still being practiced. This decided our National W. C. T. U. to ask for an amendment to our federal constitution to prohibit the abomination, for the American harem is an insult to all womanhood, and not only our country but every leading European nation has joined with us in stamping out this dangerous system."

WORLD'S SERIES MONEY IS GIVEN THE GIANTS

New York, Oct. 13.—At a brief meeting of the national baseball commission at the Waldorf-Astoria today, President Ban Johnson forcibly defended the management of the New York Giants relative to the distribution of world series tickets.

"It was the best handled series that I have seen," he added, "and I am greatly surprised that James E. Gaffney, a major league club owner, should have cast any reflections on the New York club. If he was properly quoted he should be severely reprimanded."

The world's series money for the New York players was promptly handed over when John McGraw assured the commission that the players who acted as authors on the side had all signed their contracts before the rule against player writers went through. The Athletics will get their money tomorrow from Gary Herrmann and John E. Bruce, who will take charge of the refunding of money that was paid in the expectation of a third game in Philadelphia.

Johnson left for Chicago after today's meeting. McGraw will go there Thursday to prepare for the trip around the world of the Giants and White Sox. McGraw has his whole team picked, but Comiskey has a few more selections to make.

To facilitate Comiskey's early departure the annual meeting of the National league will be called in Chicago the first week in November. The exact date has not yet been set.

A feature of the season was a banquet given by Connie Mack in honor of American league successes in the last four years.

UNDERGO OPERATIONS

Provo, Oct. 13.—Alma Van Wageningen is at the Provo general hospital, where he has undergone an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Van Wageningen's condition is very favorable to recovery.

Mrs. N. P. Markham is at the Provo general hospital suffering from an internal disorder, for which she has undergone an operation. Her condition is as favorable as can be expected and her recovery is looked forward to.

The old sluggers did very little clinching. Referee Harry Stout never had to caution either one for unnecessary holding or hitting in the clinches and in the first two rounds Wolgast hit Nelson with a left hander, followed up with rights to the body. In the fancy bowknots with hot shots to the pit of the stomach.

Wolgast left the ring without a mark, while Nelson's cauliflower ears were gushing blood, his eye was cut open and blood was flowing from his mouth.

At no time in the battle did Nelson appear to have a possible chance. He took his punishment almost with eagerness, but the beatings of many hard encounters have taken the steam from his punches.

JENSEN EMPLOYEES ARRAIGNED IN COURT

Salt Lake, Oct. 14.—John F. Thorne was arraigned in the court of Justice of the Peace Harry S. Harper yesterday on a charge of criminal conspiracy in connection with a plan by which it is alleged the Jensen Creamery company was defrauded on or before September 12.

He was given until 10 o'clock the forenoon of October 15 to plead and his bond was fixed at $500. In default of the bond he was confined in the county jail.

John R. Cushing, charged as a party to the same offense, entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was fixed at $500, and being furnished, he was ordered released. C. B. Quinn, also alleged to have been connected with the affair, had already furnished a bond of $500 and he did not appear for arraignment and his plea was not entered.

The three men will be tried before Justice Harper at 10 o'clock the forenoon of October 21.

WOLGAST IS TO MUCH FOR BAT

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—At Wolgast tonight was given the popular decision over Bat Nelson, his old time enemy in an interesting 15-round engagement at the Elks rink. In eight of the 10 rounds the Michigan fighter had the advantage at the going and in the final round the Cadillac wildcat had the battered and bleeding Dane reeling around the ring on his weak underpins. Nelson never had a chance.

The old sluggers did very little clinching. Referee Harry Stout never had to caution either one for unnecessary holding or hitting in the clinches and in the first two rounds Wolgast hit Nelson with a left hander, followed up with rights to the body. In the fancy bowknots with hot shots to the pit of the stomach.

YOKEL AND JORDAN SIGN FOR MATCH

Salt Lake, Oct. 14.—Final arrangements were made for the big world's championship wrestling match between Yokel and Chris Jordan, champion of the world, when the wrestlers and Fred Crabbe, the promoter, signed articles and posted their forfeits yesterday afternoon.

The match will take place at the Auditorium on Richards street on the evening of October 27. This place will be fitted up at great expense to accommodate in the neighborhood of 50,000 people. Elevated seats will be installed so that everyone in the house will have an excellent view of the mat.

Promoter Crabbe has guaranteed the contestants the largest purse ever offered two wrestlers in the western territory. A purse of $3000 will be divided, $2000 to Jordan, who commands the big end of the purse because he is champion, and $1000 to Yokel. Yokel is guaranteed $3000, with the option of 70 per cent of the gross gate receipts, of which he has to pay $2000 to Jordan. Thus, in case the house runs over $5000, Yokel will get more money than Jordan; but he is taking all the chances, while Jordan gets his $2000, win, lose or draw. However, it is a customary for the champion to dictate the terms of most matches and if Yokel can win back the title he will be in a position to name his terms for his future matches.

Both men have been training for the past few days and have been doing some hard work on the mat as yet, but from now until the match they will both do road work in the mornings and work on the mat with their wrestling partners in the afternoon.

Jordan will probably do his gymnasium work at the central fire station and Yokel will probably work at the Y. M. C. A.

This will be the first sporting event Fred Crabbe has promoted, and he states that he intends to leave nothing undone that will add to the comfort and meet with the approval of the local wrestling fans.

DYNAMITE USED TO CHECK FIRE'S SPREAD

Price, Oct. 13.—Dynamite was used at Hiawatha coal camp early this morning to blow up a burning hotel in order to save the remainder of the camp from destruction.

When the Hiawatha Mine hotel was discovered to be on fire at 2 o'clock this morning the flames had gained such headway that control was beyond possibility under the circumstances. Cottages adjacent to the hotel were in imminent danger of destruction and recourse to dynamite was had to save the camp.

The hotel building was owned by the Consolidated Fuel company and was conducted by J. B. Corrigan. Forty men were left quartered by the fire and the company officials were obliged to provide temporary homes for them. Dr. Dowd, the mine physician, had an office in one end of the hotel building and his instruments, medicines and papers were destroyed. The total loss is about $5000.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Provo, Oct. 13.—George A. Startup expects to attend the National Prohibition convention to be held in Columbus, Ohio, November 14, called by the national council of organizers. The object of the convention is to unify the prohibition forces for educational work, looking to a general movement throughout the nation for constitutional prohibition.

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers should apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Building, Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Mason" writes: "For years I have been taking medicine to cure constipation, liver trouble and the usual disease that come from that source. Headaches, sallow skin, kidney trouble, dark spots before my eyes, dizzy spells and tingles of rheumatism are getting worse."

Answer: Take three grain sulphate tablets (not sulphur). They are packed in sealed tubes with directions and are convenient, effective and highly curative for such ailments as arise from chronic constipation. If you are dyspeptic, also take tablets, trochotine.

"Mrs. A. D." writes: "Incontinence of urine can be controlled by using the following: Tincture cubeba 1 dram; tincture rhubarb, 2 drams; 2 drams of comp. fluid balmwort 1 oz. Give from 10 to 15 drops in water one hour before meals."

"OMA W." writes: "I have suffered with catarrh of the head for many years. This has become so bad that it has affected my blood, also my stomach and bowels to a very great extent. I shall appreciate an immediate answer as I suffer greatly."

Answer: I would advise you to purchase a 2 oz. package of Vilane powder; take one-half teaspoonful of the powder and add to this a pint of warm water, sniff the water from the palm of the hand through the nostrils several times a day. Make a catarrh balm with one ounce of vasoline, or lard will do, and apply as far up the nostrils as possible. For the stomach, bowels and blood I would recommend the following tonic: Syrup sarsaparilla comp., 4 ozs.; comp. fluid balmwort, 1 oz.; and 1 oz. of fluid ext. buchu. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

"Gloria" writes: "I would like you to prescribe a good hair and scalp treatment. I am bothered with itching scalp and dandruff. My hair is faded and falling and none of the remedies I have tried have done any permanent good."

Answer: Go to your druggist and obtain a 4 oz. jar of plain yellow linseed oil. Apply as per directions. This treatment differs from all and I have actually seen the astonishing transformations which result from its use. The dandruff and itching are conquered with two or three applications, while it makes the hair glossy, wavy and full of intense natural color.

"Myrtle" writes: "Owing to my extreme thinness I am frequently embarrassed by slighting remarks of young people. Can you prescribe a safe remedy to increase my weight?"

Answer: I have so many gratifying reports from the users of three grain Hypo-Nuclease tablets, that I have become to regard these valuable little tablets as a specific and prescribe them to all who are anemic, thin, nervous and debilitated.

John R. Mc asks: "Don't you think it is wise to take medicine to reduce my weight? I weigh about 55 pounds too much."

Answer: I do think so; and a very convenient and effective flesh-reducer medicine is sold in sealed tubes with full directions for home use. It is called 5-grain arboline tablets and any well-stocked pharmacy can supply them. They are essentially good.

"Mrs. M. C." writes: "I am recovering from long illness, but am very weak, nervous, sleepless and have little appetite. Can you give me a good tonic restorative treatment?"

Answer: Have the following prescription filled and take a teaspoonful before meals. Syrup of hypophosphites comp. 5 ozs.; tincture cod-liver oil comp. 1 oz.; (not cod-liver oil). Mix and shake well before using. This is a fine nerve tonic and system tonic for old and young.

DISASTER RESULT OF BITTER FIGHT

Sailors and Dockmen of Uranium Line Involved in Numerous Disputes.

Liverpool, Oct. 14.—That the Volturno disaster was the result of a deliberate plot to destroy the vessel is the belief of the owners of the Uranium line. It is broadly hinted that the plot was the outgrowth of the bitter fight which has been raging between the Uranium and rival lines.

Captain Tinsley, manager of the Uranium line, declares that he has noticed of late an increasing bitterness among the sailors and dock laborers toward the company, which has been involved in numerous disputes with its employees.

It is the belief of Captain Tinsley that the disputes were instigated by business rivals, taking advantage of the fact that the ships of the line were offered by Englishmen and manned by Dutch and Belgian sailors. Many threatening letters have been received by the management. One of these received just before the sailing of the Volturno read:

"If you don't listen to our demands one of your boats will be burned."

There was trouble among the crew shortly before the vessel sailed, but no attention was paid to the letter. It is now believed that a bomb placed in the hold, possibly in the coal bunkers, caused the explosion and fire which destroyed the ship and more than 100 lives.

The Uranium ships sail from Dutch ports and have been strong bidders for the Dutch and German emigrant trade. So bitter has been the rivalry between the competing lines that the German officials have been induced to forbid German emigrants to engage passage on the Uranium ships.

The stories told by the passengers of the steamship Carmania and other liners which went to the rescue of the burning Volturno describe the heroic efforts in the face of almost insuperable difficulties to save the passengers and crew of the doomed ship.

As yet information is lacking as to how the fire originated, but it is shown that the fact that no more lives were lost was due in the first place to the wireless and in the second to Captain Barr's happy idea of calling the Narragansett for oil.
